CWMG follows a standardized set of procedures to ensure its Investment Advisor Representatives meet the fiduciary standard they owe to clients. A few of the tasks that help ensure successfully meeting this standard are:

- Review of all client trades to ensure they match the clients Investment Advisory Agreements.
- Ensuring client transactions are executed prior to any Representatives trades to prevent any conflicts of interest.
- Regularly reviewing the company's Written Supervisory Manual that details our responsibilities to the client.
- Adherence to our Code of Ethics.
- Protection of client's personal information.
- Meeting the "Fiduciary Standard" which means "always putting the client's best interest first".
- Having procedures and data back up plans in place to ensure business continuity.
